

Key Stage 3 Programme of study 2018-19: Geography

Year	Autumn-term		Spring-term		Summer-term
7	Finding My Way including a focus on longitude/latitude, UK physical Geography and world continents & oceans.	Weather & Climate including a focus on measuring the weather, extreme weather and climate change.	Crime including a focus on presenting data using a variety of geographical techniques.	Mega-cities including a focus on the problems megacities are faced with the strategies used to make them a better place.	Kenya including a focus on the people, tribes and squatter settlements.	Festivals including a focus on map-skills and the geographical location of Glastonbury.
8	Rivers including a focus on river processes and river landscapes, river flooding and management of river floods.	Antarctica as an example of a cold environment and Sustainable development	Tectonic Hazards including a focus on earthquakes & volcanoes and how these disasters can be managed.	Coasts including a focus on coastal processes and coastal landscapes, coastal erosion and management of coastal erosion.	Globalisation & Fairtrade including the impacts of Trans National Corporations.	Tourism including a focus on ecotourism, mass tourism and how these can be used to support development.
9	Fantastic Places and Rocks & Landscapes including a focus on granite, limestone and chalk & clay landscapes.	Rural Environments with a focus on agriculture and managing food resources for the future.	Ecosystems including a focus on Hot Deserts, Rainforests & Deciduous Woodland.	Geography of Conflict including a focus on refugees and migration.	The Changing Economic World including a focus on Indonesia and the UK as contrasting economic regions.	DME with a focus on Urbanisation.

Key:

Each unit is assessed following our STEPs model. The course has been split into 5 themes or 'strands'. These strands have been highlighted above using the following colours:

Locational Knowledge
Place
Physical Processes
Human Processes
Skills & Fieldwork