

Key Stage 4 Programme of study 2018-19: Geography

Year	Autumn-term		Spring-term		Summer-term
10	The Challenge of Natural Hazards - Plate tectonics, earthquakes, tropical storms, UK extreme weather and climate change.	The Challenge of Natural Hazards - Plate tectonics, earthquakes, tropical storms, UK extreme weather and climate change.	The Living World – local ecosystems, tropical rainforests and deserts.	Physical Landscapes of the UK – coastal processes and features, coastal erosion and management, fluvial processes & features, river erosion and management	Physical Landscapes of the UK – coastal processes and features, coastal erosion and management, fluvial processes & features, river erosion and management	The fieldwork is carried out on the topic of coastal management and urban dereliction and includes a trip to Newquay to collect primary data.
11	The Changing Economic World – Global Development Gap, Economic Development in Indonesia and the UK.	The Changing Economic World – Global Development Gap, Economic Development in Indonesia and the UK.	Urban Issues and Challenges – Urbanisation, Urban growth in Jakarta, Indonesia, Urban change in Plymouth and urban sustainability.	The Challenge of Resource Management – Overview of resources in the UK, global demand and security of water.	The Challenge of Resource Management – Overview of resources in the UK, global demand and security of water.

Key:

Each unit is assessed formally at the end of the course. The three papers are:

Paper-1:
Paper-2:
Paper-3: